

Contests

- Insect ID
- Collection Contest
- Entomology Photography
- Beekeeping Essay Contest
- Open Educational Presentation

Contact:

Matthew Peifer

CEA 4-H & Youth Development

matthew.pfeifer@ag.tamu.edu

Taylor Baldwin

Assistant CEA 4-H & Youth Development

taylor.baldwin@ag.tamu.edu

brazos-tx@tamu.edu

Phone: 979-823-0129

Dates:

1/3 County Round Up Entries & Fees Due (Educational Presentation)

1/24 County Round Up (EP)

3/22 District 9 Round Up Entries & Fees Due

4/27 District 9 Round Up

5/11 State Round Up Entries & Fees

6/5-8 State 4-H Round Up

Introduction to Entomology

Insect Identification

- Contest consists of:
 - Matching common names to scientific
 - T/F from provided study materials
 - Fill in the blank questions
 - Matching insects to their preferred habitat
 - Questions about legs, antennae, & wings
- Identifying selected insects

Photo Contest

- Contestants submit a photo album of photographs they have captured of insects & arthropods
- Insects in the photos should be identified through Order using scientific nomenclature

Beekeeping Essay

- Contest hosted by The Foundation for the Preservation of Honey Bees, Inc.
- Participants write an essay about a topic chosen by the foundation

Collection Contest

- Following contest guidelines, participants are able to submit their personal collection of insects to be scored.
- Collected insects or arthropods should be identified through Order using scientific nomenclature & labeled accordingly.